

MEHREGAN

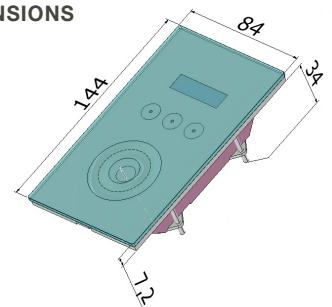

SPECIFICATIONS

- compact and versatile
- software included, Mac and Windows compatible
- communication over Bluetooth
- glass front
- remote power supply board
- generates 128 DMX channels
- master function for intensity and speed
- blackout function by central touch button for easy daily operation
- specially developed for architectural applications
- CE compliant
- manufactured in the EU under ISO 9001 quality control

DIMENSIONS

We continue the successful story of the Mithras architectural light controller by introducing our Mehregan controller. This product is manufactured with fine mechanical precision engineering and efficient electronics. It is easy to operate and has an elegant appearance. Moreover, this light controller is equipped with the latest technology, such as Bluetooth, colour-fading screen and touch sensitive buttons.

More information: www.lux-lumen.com